Career Guidance Programme Report - 2018&19

On 27th October 2018 the Special Lecture on " After Law What Next" was organized by Career Guidance Cell for Ist and V LL.B(3 and 5 Years) Students for academic purpose. Sri. Suresh K.S CE0 of JSS Law College, Mysuru was the, resource person and explained the opportunities in the field of legal profession. The resource person pointed out the India has the world's second largest legal profession with more than 600,000 lawyers. The predominant service providers are individual lawyers, small or family based firms. Most of the firms are involved in the issues of domestic law and majority work under country's adversarial litigation system. The conception of legal services as a 'noble profession' rather than services resulted in formulation of stringent and restrictive regulatory machinery. These regulations have been justified on the grounds of public policy and 'dignity of profession'. The judiciary has reinforced these principles, which can be reflected in words of Justice Krishna Iyer, when he noted, Law is not a trade, not briefs, not merchandise, and so the heaven of commercial competition should not vulgarize the legal profession. However over the years courts have recognized 'Legal Service' as a 'service' rendered to the consumers and have held that lawyers are accountable to the clients in the cases of deficiency of services. The following opportunities had been pointed out by the resource person.

1. Legal Practitioner / Advocate / Legal Advisor: Lawyers can work as legal counsel and legal advisors for corporate sector, firms, organizations, legal persons, individuals and families. They can work as trustees of various trusts, as teachers, law reporters, company secretaries and so on. Additional law qualification along with other degrees offers scope for a wide range of employment opportunities. One who desires to become an advocate and practice law as a profession in India must have obtained basic law degree. He/ she should get himself/herself enrolled with State Central Bar Council as per provisions contained in the Advocates Act, 1961. Besides, he/she is also required to qualify in the entry test recently introduced by Bar Council of India failing which no one shall be enrolled as an advocate. An application for admission as an advocate shall be made in the prescribed form to the State Bar Council within whose jurisdiction the applicant proposes to practice.

b. Government Service: Persons possessing requisite qualifications are recruited for Indian legal service against various posts—Legal advisors in Department of Legal Affairs and Legislative Counsel in Legislative Department. These officers can reach the level of Secretary to the Government of India with the passage of time according to their suitability. Likewise, Legislative Counsels are also appointed in official languages Wing of the Legislative Department for Hindi and Regional languages-(Assamese, Bengali, Gujarati, Kannada, Telugu, Malayalam, Marathi, Oriya, Punjabi, Tamil, Telugu and Urdu). At the state level, too, officers with legal qualifications and professional qualifications are also appointed against similar posts. However, designations may vary from state to state. Besides, Law officers/ Legal advisors are appointed in almost all the ministries/departments/ undertakings of the Govt. of India and State Governments. All these posts are generally filled up by recruitment through UPSC and State Public Service Commissions on regular/ deputation basis. Basic qualification for all these posts is a degree in law, besides a degree in Arts/Science/Commerce etc. and professional experience as per the requirements of each post. In addition to that members of Law Commission, Govt. Advocates, public prosecutors, solicitors, Attorney General, Advocate general, Notaries and Oath Commissioners as also legal secretaries in assemblies ,staff in higher/lower judiciary/Quasi-Judicial institutions, Judicial members in CAT, Income tax, Sales tax, Excise and other tribunals are also appointed as per rules as and when the vacancies occur. However, fresh Law Graduates are appointed against non-gazette posts generally equivalent to the post of Assistant in the Secretariat, such as Legal Assistants, Legal/Judicial Translators etc... They are also recruited as commissioned officers in the legal branches of the Indian Army, Navy and Air force. They conduct courts of enquiry and court martial of erring service personnel as per law.

c. Judiciary: In the Judiciary, the lowest judicial cadre posts of Magistrate/Munsif or Sub-Judge are filled up by recruitment through public service commissions or otherwise under the supervision of the High Court. Basic qualification for all these posts is a degree in law(professional), besides a degree in Arts / Science / Commerce etc. and the age limit for all these posts is generally 35 years which is relaxable for special categories as per rules. A Magistrate presides over criminal court and a Munsif/Sub-judge deals with civil cases. These officers can become District and Sessions Judge by promotion and can also be elevated to the office of a Judge of the High Court and the Supreme Court subject to their seniority and suitability. Earlier District and Sessions Judges were promoted from those in service/ selected from amongst the practicing lawyers but now in most of the states they are being recruited through competitive examination conducted by State commissions / High Courts.

- d. Teaching: Those with good academic record, particularly holding LL.M, Ph.D. degrees, UGC-NET/SLET or published work of a high standard, can take up jobs in any University or Institute offering law courses to students. There is wide scope for visiting professors as private universities are coming up in large number and they prefer such persons because of their eminence and acumen.
- e. Writing/Editing Law Books/Journals/Reports: If one is familiar with the complexities of law and the procedure and is in a position to understand the intricacies of case law and has a flair for writing he/she is fit to be an author of law books / legal commentaries and a proper person to bring out law reports, produce law journals, take up all other journalistic assignments and compile law lexicons
- f. Legal Outsourcing: Legal Outsourcing refers to the practice of a law firm obtaining legal services from an outside law firm. This practice is, however, known as offshoring when the outsourced entity is based in another country. According to a report, India has huge potential in legal outsourcing, with the number of jobs in the field increasing to 79,000 by 2015, a study has said. The field of legal outsourcing was largely untapped. At present the number of jobs in legal outsourcing in India stood less than 12,000. The most important challenges to legal outsourcing included concerns about data security, conflict of interest rules, and the need for Indian lawyers to pass bar examinations.

SPECIAL LECTURE ON TIPS FOR JUDICIAL EXAM PREPARATION

On 5th April 2019, a special lecture on Tips for Judicial Exam preparation was organized for Final Year students of our college. Sri Hanumanthu, Alumni of our college and presently serving as Civil Judge (Jnr Div), Ramnagaragave some inputs on judicial exam preparation, subjects to be covered etc. Addressing the gathering he said that students should firstly make their mind for preparation. Interest for preparation matters and it begins from the day they join the law course. He explained about the syllabus of the exam which covers all the procedural laws and also translation paper from Kannada to English and English to Kannada. One can practice this by reading bare acts of the laws. The exam is conducted at three stages Preliminary, Mains and Viva voce. The candidates who qualify in both Preliminary and Main exam shall be called for viva.

He advised the students to firstly choose their interest either to practice or to opt for serving judiciary. In this regard they should prepare from the core and practice all the procedural laws. He also mentioned that today though a candidate appearing for examination doesn't require previous particle experience, it is required from the point of service. Any fresh candidates are not able to understand the court proceedings and they are finding it hard to learn in the course of their training which is given for one year.

He also advised students to take judicial service seriously as it is one of the best options as a carrier and also as a profession which is meant to serve society by giving justice. Students who hold an idea of service to society can choose this profession as it gives complete satisfaction on service to society. In the course of his lecture he also advised students to stick to professional ethics as judiciary is the highest organ meant to uphold justice. One should not be money minded as this profession is not only service but also a prayer to god. Nothing should be done against our conscious but in judiciary nothing should be done without considering the proper evidence in any case.

A vote of Thanks was proposed by SmtSridevi Krishna, Asst. Professor

PERSONALITY DEVELOPMENT REPORT

REPORT 2019-2020

The special lecture on personality development was organized on 26st August 2019 at Vidyavardhaka Law College at 11.30 AM, Prof. G.B Patil, Registrar Evaluation KSLU was the resource person our Principal Smt. Deepu P welcomed the resource person and gathering.

The resource person in his speech stated that ,the skills of the law students need for ideal career are something that you can work on and develop over time. As they say: practice makes perfect! Here are a few that students should consider working on if you aspire to be a successful lawyer.

He specifically pointed out that, "As a legal professional you'll have to work alongside a variety of people and more often than not winning a case will be a team effort. Solicitors need to collaborate with colleagues and partners in their firm, as well as liaise with clients. Barristers need to foster a close working relationship with their clerks and will often work high-profile cases alongside other barristers, as workloads on such cases are too heavy for one representative. The ability to work as part of a team is therefore essential and you'll need the skills to deal with people from all levels of the legal hierarchy, from trainees and pupils, to members of the judiciary. It's also vital that clients trust their legal representatives, so you'll need to be personable, persuasive and polite. The easiest way to hone your people skills is to join a team. This could be a sports team, drama club or choir - anything that enables you to work with others will help. Alternatively, make use of the opportunities at your university and get involved with editing the student newspaper or join the debating society. Part-time work in a customer service role is another way to improve this skill. Discover how to balance work and study."

The resource person suggested to studnets regarding improvement of Communication skills. Strong oral and written communication skills are vital and without them you'll struggle to carry out the duties of a solicitor effectively. Excellent listening ability is also important when working with clients, as the student need to be able to build relationships and engender confidence, need to be a confident speaker when arguing a case in court, negotiating settlements and explaining complex information to clients. Public speaking is also required in the role of a barrister. To hone this skill while at university, volunteer as the spokesperson in group activities or get involved in debate teams. Written ability is equally important when drafting letters and legal documents. To improve the written communication skills, get involved with your university's law society.

The resource person guided the Research and analysis skill to students reading large amounts of information, absorbing facts and figures, analysing material and distilling it into something manageable is a feature of any law career. The key is being able to identify what is relevant out of the mass of information and explain it clearly and concisely to your client. Hone this skill by taking large documents or long news articles and making five-point bulleted lists of the most important themes. Research also plays a huge role in a lawyer's day-to-day job. You'll need research skills when doing the background work on a case, drafting legal documents and advising clients on complicated issues. Use your time at university to familiarize yourself with internet and library resources and build up a network of contacts. As a newly qualified solicitor or barrister industry connections can prove to be a useful source of advice. Many students have the potential, but just don't know how to use examples to illustrate their abilities. It takes practice to get it right. For advice and tips take a look at writing a legal CV and cover letter.

In this occasion the teaching and 1 year 3 Years LL.B students were gathered.

SHESHADRI IYER ROAD MYSURU REPORT ON ONE DAY ONLINE CAREER GUIDANCE WORKSHOP -2021 Date: 08-07-2021

On 08-07-2021 in our college we conduct one day online career guidance workshop in association with Karnataka state law university. This beneficiary of the workshop was final year students of law colleges of Mysore Zone.

We started our workshop through by the inauguration program. Before inaugurating the workshop our Principal Dr. Deepu P had welcome one and all. This workshop was inaugurated by Prof. P. Ishwar Bhat Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, Karnataka state law University.

Prof. P Ishwar Bhat Hon,ble Vice chancellor of KSLU inaugurated our workshop. While inaugurating the program they suggested to every law colleges to give much more importance to the establishment of Legal aid cell. Even they explain the power and the functions of Legal service Authorities who are playing a vital role for the achievement of Justice. They also stated that An Act to constitute legal services authorities to provide free and competent legal services to the weaker sections of the society to ensure that opportunities for securing justice are not denied to any citizen by reason of economic or other disabilities, and to organize lok Adalats to secure that the operation of the legal system promotes justice on a basis of equal opportunity.

After the inaugural speech by our Hon'ble Vice chancellor our Chief Guest of the Workshop Sri. Venkatesh Naik. T Principal Secretary, Law Department, Government of Karnataka, addressed the gathering by the valuable suggestions.

Our Chief Guest of the program also appreciated our university effort for promoting student oriented program such as career guidance program. Even they explain about legal aid and legal service authority in the administration of justice. These authorities give free legal aid to a person if he/she is not capable of bearing the expenditure. This includes appointing a lawyer in case the person is a defendant in a case.

In our Workshop Sri. Mohammed Zubair N KAS Registrar KSLU Hubballi also addressed the gathering through the moral story. They also appreciated for conducting the career guidance program to the final students of law colleges. Even they explain the importance of the term Justice. Justice is an ideal representing something that is just and right. It basically means being just, impartial, fair and right. What is just may depend on the context, but its requirement is essential to the idea of justice. Justice generally means the recognition, application and enforcement of laws by courts. This is different from the understanding of justice in the ancient period when it was given a religious and moralistic meaning.

In our Workshop Presidential address was given by Sri. Gundappa Gowda Hon, ble President of Vidyavardhaka Sangha Mysore. They rendered the best wishes to our program.

> Vidyavardhaka Law College Mysore - 570 001

Lastly we request Dr. D Rangaswamy Assistant Professor, KSLU and co-ordinator of the workshop to render the vote of thanks.

After inauguration Program immediately we started our session. First session on *OPPORTUNITIES*FOR LAW GRADUATES for this our Resource person was Prof. K.S SURESH CEO, JSS Law

College, Mysuru.

They explained the career option in India after law. Once a candidate has successfully completed an undergraduate degree of law, many future career options are open for him/ her. With a degree in BA LLB, B.Sc LLB, B.Com LLB, or LLB, students can venture many sectors for their professional debut. Some of the most popular sectors in which candidates seek jobs after completing graduation in law have been mentioned below.

- Judiciary
- Practice of Law
- Government Jobs and Armed Forces
- Private Sector

Even they explain the career option through International Focus.

Legal education in India is similar to the one in Britain. Whereas several universities in the UK offer legal education to Indian students, Indian students quite enjoy working in the UK wherein they receive attractive salary packages. A recent trend has been that students from India study in law Vidyavardhaka Yaw College Mysore - 570 001 colleges in the USA and receive attractive jobs after completion of the course. Harvard Law School, Yale University, Australia National University, etc. are some attractive options for Indian law students these days.

After the first session we conducted the second session. The session II was on WHY NOT I? (MOTIVATION) by Sri. Praveen V Gudi Motivator and life Coach, Founder My Life Hubballi.

Our resource person explain about how Inspiration helps propel people forward. It pushes apathy away and awakens people to new and exciting possibilities. They're able to transcend their limitations and mundane lives. It can help all people to become more creative and help them to progress toward their goals if they are open to it.

Although inspiration impacts people in several meaningful and often magical ways, it is not something as elusive as it seems. Inspiration is everywhere, and it can be captured, activated, and manipulated. Most often, inspiration is found in others who say something or do something thought provoking and meaningful.

Vidyavardhaka Uaw College Mysore - 570 001 Success is subjective and different for each person. But irrespective of the fact, everyone strives to be successful in life and reach up to some target goal they have set in life. Be it a working professional or a student, everyone has some goals in mind they would want to achieve in a span of time. So in order to stay motivated and go in the right direction towards achieving success, a motivating speech is a must.

Students are at a stage in their lives where they can achieve more in life. They generally have the energy and enthusiasm they need to channelize it in the right direction. Sometimes students might get influenced by wrong things in life and need to be put on the right track. So institutions are generally conduct motivational sessions from time to time to inspire the students to become better human beings.

After the completion of second session, we started our session III on TRAITS OF ADVOCACY by Dr. Kalicharan, Principal, Vidyavikas of legal studies Mysore.

Our resource person stated that In Advocacy there must be Clarity of purpose, Safeguard, Confidentiality, Equality and diversity, Empowerment and putting people first are the principles of advocacy. Good communication skills, Analytical and research skills, judgment, Creativity, Logical thinking are some qualities of good advocate.

Advocacy is an important skill because it brings about a difference in people's lives, to their businesses, their residences and indeed to the society. They explained few important points of Advocacy are the necessary qualities a good lawyer should posses---

Preparation: Every hearing takes a lot of preparation in order to present the case in a perfect way. A good Advocate cannot afford to be clueless or get nervous while presenting the facts.

Planning: Not all facts and evidence should be presented in the first hearing itself. A good Advocate needs to plan out 'how much to show and when to show it. And also how much to hide' in order to preserve the confidential data from the opposition.

Perception: The Advocate's perception towards the case matters the most. If he is sure about his client being innocent, only then he will be able to prove him innocent in front of the Law.

Vidyavardhaka Law Cones

Perseverance: Cases are never simple. If they were, people wouldn't have needed an Advocate in the first place! Thus, a good Advocate is someone who sticks to the case facing all the odds and difficulties inside as well as outside of the court.

Persuade: No person has ever or will ever be able to become a good lawyer without good persuasion skill. An Advocate should be sure of what he is speaking as well as be able to persuade others into believing him.

Lastly, A good Advocate is someone who is always one step ahead of his opposition.

After the completion of Session III our principal Dr. Deepu P and Prof. K B Vasudeva, Director of legal studies, Vidyavardhaka law college Mysore immensely expressed their gratitude to every resource persons of the workshop. Even they expressed their gratitude to every participants of the career guidance workshop.

REPORT ON CAMPUS TO COURT PROGRAMME

On 21st September 2022 Campus to court programme was organized in association with Adhivaktha Parishad, Mysuru. Mr K.R Shivashankar, senior Advocate, Mysore Bar spoke on Role of blossoming advocates in promoting judiciary. Addressing the students he said Lawyers play an important part in the administration of justice. The Profession itself requires the safeguarding of high moral standards. As an officer of the Court the overriding duty of a lawyer is to the Court, the standards of his profession and to the public. Since the main job of a lawyer is to assist the Court in dispensing justice, the members of the Bar cannot behave with doubtful scruples or strive to thrive on litigation.

Lawyers shall at all times maintain the honour and dignity of their profession as essential agents of the administration of justice.

The duties of lawyers towards their clients shall include:

- (a) Advising clients as to their legal rights and obligations and as to the working of the legal system in so far as it is relevant to the legal rights and obligations of the clients;
- (b) Assisting clients in every appropriate way, and taking legal action to protect their interests;
- (c) Assisting clients before courts, tribunals or administrative authorities, where appropriate. Lawyers, in protecting the rights of their clients and in promoting the cause of justice, shall seek to uphold human rights and fundamental freedoms recognized by national and international law and shall at all times act freely and diligently in accordance with the law and recognized standards and ethics of the legal profession.

The programme was presided over by Smt Sharada, President of Adhivaktha Parishad, Mysuru South. She spoke about role of female advocates in legal profession. She said Women's entry and rising representation in the legal profession has been one of the most remarkable social changes in recent years. More women are now working in the judicial system than ever before, though they are still outnumbered by men. Important decisions about societal, legal, and financial practices are made in these jobs. Having more women serve in these roles helps to build the inclusivity, fairness, transparency, and representation of the people that the judicial system stands for. The influx of women currently in law school may signal that a more fair representation of women in the judiciary is on the way. This broader representation should also extend to non-binary and gender-fluid individuals, both in law school and on the bench. This could well be happening, but there is no data to PRINCIPAL Vidyavardnaka Law College Mysore - 570 001 report. Such information needs to be collected for us to measure the full extent of gender representation in the judiciary.

The programme concluded with vote of thanks delivered by Mr Chandan Srinivas, Final year student. Faculty members and students were present in this occasion.

REPORT ON SPECIAL LECTURE ON INTEGRATING CAREER & MENTAL HEALTH COUNSELLING

On 22nd September 2022 orientation programme for joining 4 Kar Air Sqn NCC and special lecture on integrating career & mental health counselling was organized. Wg Cdr A. Chaturvedi addressed both 3 years & 5 years LL.B students. Addressing the gathering he said Individuals seeking career counselling often present with a complex array of issues, and thus it is often difficult for counsellors to separate career satisfaction and development from other mental health issues. Career, Work, and Mental Health examines this tightly woven connection between mental health issues and career development and offers practical ways for counsellors to blend career and personal counselling.

Students while choosing their career should be wise enough. There should not be any external pressure in choosing the profession. Parents support in choosing the profession is primary but as an individual one should develop thinking capacity and understand what is right and wrong for him. Joining NCC should be out of free will of a student. At this juncture they should develop capacity to take decisions independently. Giving an example of soldier at border he said a soldier has no second chance in war, likewise should be our decision. He motivated final year students to join air force and serve our nation. That is also one of the fundamental duties of citizen. One should utilise this opportunity whenever it's available. Further, he also motivated first year students for joining NCC which is a three years course. During the course he said that student will learn to be disciplined and understand the value of life together with serving our nation. He shared his experiences at war and his first flight.

The programme was presided over by Prof K.B Vasudeva, he appreciated the work of Wg Cdr A. Chaturvedi and said we are blessed to hear words of a soldier. He also motivated the students for joining NCC and choosing the right career. Addressing the students he said a student should develop strong mind in a strong body. Law students can also build a career in army, navy or air force. One can become a judge of court martial or take up AFCAT exams. Two seats are reserved for law graduate students in ground duty branches and they may get employed on legal duties of IAF.

The programme concluded with vote of thanks delivered by Dr Sridevi Krishna, Coordinator NCC wing, VVLC.
