Resolution- It was resolved that Institution will go for NAAC and the necessary arrangement for the same will be undertaken by the management. Also all necessary preparation for Affiliation, LIC will be undertaken this year.

With the above resolution on the agenda following suggestions were given by the Governing member-

1. Orientation Programme should be monitored with its outcome. Orientation Programme should concentrate on e-learning, writing project proposals, writing foot note in research paper etc. Orientation Programme should be restructured inviting best resource persons who can train both students and faculties in this regard.
2. Teachers should adopt learners centric approach and encourage students to learn through books and use e-resources. The programme's outcome should be monitored.
3. Test to identify their improvement in learning language should be done. Writing ten legal terms and English words daily and the same in Kannada for a month, students will be able to learn about three hundred words in a month and this will help them to learn language better. They should be given a topic for discussion specifically focussing on current legal developments or new judgment. The college should have a 'Contemporary Legal Development Forum' to discuss about latest judgment and various issues of law. This can be done by teachers as a part of their class room activity too. He also suggested that at least once in a month outdoor activity should be organized for students so that they get a chance to learn law in action.
4. Non-law subjects should be given equal importance along with law subjects. They are the foundation for learning law subjects. In this regard even the non-law faculty members should teach the non- law subjects integrated with law subjects. Organizing Faculty Development programme and training programmes in this regard is necessary.
5. Learning of law subjects should be based on collaboration with sister institutions. Students should know about particle aspects of registering patents which can be best explained by Engineering College faculties.
6. Students should be made to analyse case laws and write down the facts, issues involved and the judgment. They should submit assignment on specific case law analysed by them.
7. Training for teachers to conduct moot court classes should be given.
8. The Governing Council member from University suggested that the Institution should comply with Bar Council of India and KSLU norms.

The meeting concluded with the vote of thanks proposed by Dr. Sridevi Krishna, Asst. Professor and IQAC Coordinator.

ALL ARE CORDIALLY INVITED

Object: To understand the concept of gender discrimination, sexual harassment, workplace and basic types of sexual harassment at workplace and how it is related to gender discrimination.

Sexual harassment is unwelcome words or behaviors that are sexual or sex-based in nature from students or adults (of the same gender or not) that interfere with your ability to learn, study, work, or participate in school or work activities. We conducted Awareness Programme on Sexual harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013. Our guests suggested that the effective use of this legislation is possible only through awareness generations among the masses.

They also suggested the legal provisions relating to Whenever sexual harassment had become so unpleasant and make a worker's life miserable, she would seek redressal under the extant law such as Section 354 (outraging of modesty) or Section 509 (insulting of modesty) of the Indian Penal Code, 1890. She would also seek alternative employment. The employer would on its part, incur significant costs in defending its image and in finding suitable replacements for both the errant and the harassed members of its workforce. Generally, therefore, it had been in the interest of employers that the working environment provides that the workers are treated with dignity.

Dr. Rajeshwari explained about the importance of POSH to our students.

The Prevention of Sexual Harassment (PoSH) at Workplace Act of India mandates every organization to define their sexual harassment policies, prevention systems, procedures and service rules for its employees. Recent reports claim a rise in the number of cases registered for sexual harassments at the workplaces. Also, the number of women in the corporate world reporting such severe incidents are increasing. Such incidents at the workplace can be strenuous to the employees as well as to the entire organization.

Actions like these result in undesirable physical and emotional ramifications. It adversely affects the productivity of employees creating an unpleasant atmosphere. Many times, performing regular tasks in the workplace can be difficult. By making sure that all the employees go through a necessary PoSH training which can ensure a safe working environment.

He also explained what is sexual harassment? She said that, Any form of discrimination that includes unwelcome attention of sexual nature is considered sexual harassment. It involves a range of behaviours from seemingly mild transgressions and annoyances, to actual sexual abuse or sexual assault. Anyone from either gender can be a victim of sexual harassment, and anybody from either gender can be a perpetrator. Sexual harassment also includes the conduct of co-workers who engage in verbal or physically harassing behaviour which has the potential to humiliate or embarrass an employee or the company.

She also explained the, STEPS YOU MUST TAKE FOR POSH

- Dealing upfront with the harasser.
- Do not pretend it did not happen.
- Immediately inform the alleged harasser that the behaviour is unwelcome.
- Demand that the harassment must stop.
- Reinforce your statements with a firm tone and professional body language.
- Trust your instincts about possible danger.
- Discuss it with a close friend or confidant.
- Report sexual harassment to the Human Resource department or respective committee.

She also interact with the students relating to dealing with sexual harassment cases.

Finally through the institution we honour our guest.

Lastly vote of thanks rendered by the Indumathi M J co-ordinator of anti-sexual harassment cell.
