REPORT ON INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

College Human Rights Committee celebrates International Human Rights Day on 09-03-2024. Co-Ordinator of Human Rights Committee Dr. Bore Gowda S.B. rendered Wel Come Speech and Chief Guest of this Programme Dr. Ashwini, Assistant Professor, Government First Grade College, Talakadu in her speech said Imagine a gender equal world. A world free of bias, stereotypes, and discrimination. A world that is diverse, equitable, and inclusive. A world where difference is valued and celebrated. Together we can forge women's equality. Celebrate women's achievement. Raise awareness about discrimination. Take action to drive gender parity. International Women's Day belongs to everyone, everywhere. Inclusion means all International Women's Day action is valid. International Women's Day is a holiday celebrated annually on March 8 as a focal point in the women's rights movement. International Women's Day gives focus to issues such as gender equality, reproductive rights, and violence and abuse against women.

Girls and women have a right to be equal everywhere in every country and in every aspect of life. Yet today, girls and women are not equal anywhere. And setbacks for gender equality block global progress. Gender discrimination is one of the most glaring setbacks. Wherever it exists, though, there are also brave advocates taking action to end inequality. People and partners around the world are joining the United Nations Foundation and stepping up. And we will not stop until we achieve equality for all girls and all women, wherever they are.

This programme has been presided by Dr. Deepu. P Principal, Vidyavardhaka Law College, Mysuru, in her speech said This International Women's Day, 8 March 2024, join the United Nations in celebrating under the them invest Women: Accelerate Progress The world is facing many crises, ranging from geopolitical conflicts to soaring poverty levels and the escalating impacts of climate change. These challenges can only be addressed by solutions that empower women. By investing in women, we can spark change and speed the transition towards a healthier, safer, and more equal world for all. Said Investing in women and championing gender equality turbocharges a future where everyone in society can thrive, creating a world of boundless opportunity and empowerment for all. At last vote of thanks rendered by Prof. Rajesh.
