Report on Celebration of World Social Justice Day

The special lecture was organized on the occasion of celebrating World Social Justice Day on 19-02-2022 at Room No 9. Dr. Maruthi. T.R, Prof of Law, Department of Studies in Law, University of Mysuru, were invited as a resource person to speak on World social Justice Day. Principal, Dr. P. Deepu welcomes all and introduced the resource person to students.

Prof. Maruthi. T. R while addressing students expressed significance views on world social justice day. In opening words they said, there is huge injustice in all societies due to poverty. To achieve social justice, there shall be proper implementation of law and while interpreting law our legal fraternities should have knowledge of social justice. If we can't eradicate poverty across the world purpose of social justice cannot be served. Further, they appreciated works of international scholars like Jeremy Bentham, Henry Savigny and other international instrumentalities which have engaging in providing justice to all classes of society. They stated that, justice is refined oil which must be extracted from crude oil like law and added importance of organic theory of rights which emerged on the basis of cultural variables. Further, they expressed their views on impact of WTO on Indian agriculture and correlates with other sectors.

They further enlightens students on theories of Buddha, Basavanna, Swami Vivekananda and Dr. B. R. Ambedkar's as they are profounder and promoters of social justice to vulnerable classes at the world. State has to understand the objectives of the social justice, if not very purpose of the justice will be undermined and the unscientific religious illusion is also barrier to achieve social justice. They further said, while distributing justice our judicial system should concentrate on values of preamble, fundamental rights, DPSP and other ideals of our Constitution. The concept of social justice articulated in the constitution itself and also embedded in the constitutional values. The purpose of social justice is to achieve humanity and as mentioned in preamble of constitution social justice can be achieved through, social, economic and political aspect. They further explored lack of scientific approach in the mindset of society which is hindering the development of all society. They also stressed the significant contribution and sanctity of justice by Supreme Court through its various judgments since Sajjan singh case to Rajnarayan and other relevant cases.

In their concluding speech they mentioned the Buddha, Basavanna, Swami Vivekananda and Dr. B.R. Ambedkar's ideas, ideal efforts on social justice and expressed Dr. B.R Ambedkar's quote that, where there is injustice, the future generation will not grow and suffer injustice, thus interpretation of justice is required to achieve the object of social justice. Prof. K.B. Vasueva, Director of legal studies were also presided and briefly expressed their views on social justice. Sri. H.S. Shivakumara, Assistant Prof of Law rendered vote of thanks. Dr. Kumara. N.J, Dr. Sridevikrishna, Dr. Prakruthi. A.R and More than 150 students were attended. The special lecture was intellectual, though provoking and fruitful to students.
