Inspirational Quotes by Indira Gandhi: Throughout her career, Indira Gandhi emphasised the importance of unity in diversity. November 19 every year. The day marks the birth anniversary of the first woman Prime Minister of India, Indira Gandhi. The main aim behind celebrating the day is to encourage people about unity, peace, love, and brotherhood among them. About National Integration Day

National Integration Day is also known as “Quami Ekta Divas“. The day is celebrated all across India to promote harmony. Since India is diverse in terms of culture, multiple languages, religions, geographical diversity and ethnicity, it is important for all to respect all the cultures and religions and mix together with each other to keep the unity intact. Therefore the day is important to strengthen unity and to develop a better understanding of society.

National Integration Day 2021 marks the 104th birth anniversary of Indira Gandhi.

Significance of National Integration Day

National integration means coming together of people and having universal acceptance, brotherhood, harmony and unity amongst various factors like historical and political background, social and economic differences, linguistic variations and cultural ethnicities. The day is used to dissuade the youth of our country to engage with anti-social elements and other anti-national activities which may threaten the unity of the nation. The day is celebrated to pay tribute to Indira Gandhi, who while serving as the first woman Prime Minister, made several reforms in the country. On this day every year, many events and programmes are held in schools and universities, across the country like Inter State Youth Exchange Programme (ISYEP), National Integration Camp (NIC), National Youth Festival and National Youth Award. In this occasion Dr P Deepu Principal presided this occasion with presidential remarks and in the last vote of thanks conducted and programme was concluded.
