SPECIAL LECTURE REPORT ON LAW OF LIMITATION

On 9th January 2025 at 9:30 in Lecture hall no 002 the Special Lecture on “ Law of Limitation Act 1963” was organized. Sri. Srinath H V Senior Advocate, Mysuru City Civil Court was the resource person. He spoke that, the law of limitation, codified in India as the Limitation Act, 1963, sets time limits for initiating legal proceedings, preventing stale disputes and promoting speedy justice. The Limitation Act is applicable to the suits brought by the plaintiff; they do not apply to a right setup by the defendant in defence. A defendant will not be precluded from setting up a right by way in defence, even if he could not have done so as plaintiff by way of substantive claim.

He explained about principle that limitation ordinarily does not bar the defence is not applicable in the case of set off and counter claim. Any claim by way of set off or a counter claim shall be treated as a separate suit and shall be deemed to have been instituted in the case of set off, on the same day that as the suit in which the set off is claimed and in the case of counter-claim on date on which the counter claim is made in court. The law relating to Law of Limitation in India is the Limitation Act, 1859 and subsequently Limitation Act, 1963 which was enacted on 5th of October, 1963 and which came into force from 1st of January, 1964 for the purpose of consolidating and amending the legal principles relating to limitation of suits and other legal proceedings. The programme witnessed by the final year students.
